

Sacred Spirithood Rules

1. Embrace Cultural Diversity — Avoid racism and do not share ideas that promote racial discrimination, colorism, and hate aimed at any ethnicity or culture.
2. Honor the Divine Within Others — Avoid sexism and do not share ideas that may be considered homophobic, transphobic, genderphobic, or misogynistic.
3. Practice Religious Tolerance — Do not express religious hate or evangelize a particular religion without respect for other religions.
4. Don't Quote from Scripture — People have expressed that scripture can be triggering to them because they've had religious trauma, they don't understand or relate to it, or they feel it to be evangelizing. It is not okay for someone to start quoting from religious sources to defend an argument.
5. No Endangering Yourself or Others — Do not share dangerous, unethical, or illegal practices such as harmful rituals, using substances, or unsafe spellwork.
6. A Language Barrier in Moderated Spaces — Our chat is in English only so that we can all understand what people are saying. Greetings are fine in other languages but full on chats with another person in a language we don't understand is unacceptable because that means we can't moderate it. They can move their messages into a private chat.
7. Do Not Spread Fearful Misinformation — Do not spread information that misrepresents a subject or warps a subject into something that is meant to elicit fear in others.
