

Omega Minecraft

NEWSLETTER

With everything our wonderful community is up to across all our servers, the staff of Omega Minecraft has put together a newsletter to highlight all the fun we have!

Featuring snippets and updates from each server, as well as some games and features we hope will involve you in future editions, we're excited to welcome you to the first edition of our monthly newsletter!

MiniGame Mondays

Our first MiniGame Monday kicked off on the 26th June and was a huge hit with staff and players alike!

This event will run every Monday, so check the Events channel in Discord to find out what time to join in your timezone!

This week, we started off with ABBA Caving for an hour of intense ore-mining competition, before jumping over to MiniGames where Vintage-Beef employed some devious strategies to try win Hot Potato!

Ablockalypse BFF

Take a screenshot with your Zombie BFF in Ablockalypse and post it in the Arts-and-Animals channel on Discord. The 3 screenshots with the most votes will be featured in our August edition!

This Little Piggy

With the Little Critters update to our Zoo server, players had a blast breeding all the variants of the new animals introduced. Among them, were the adorable little guinea pigs that, just like in real life, come in a wide range of colours! They're the sweetest little piggies on the server, so of course they deserve an exhibit worthy of their epic cuteness and player Dumbledoreee made sure they got just that with the Guinea Pig Library Manor!

Testing updates for our Pixelmon server got the Pokémon very excited and they showed up in force at the gyms to let Chili know they couldn't wait for the update!

Looking for a new home?

Towns are a wonderful feature of our Pixelmon server, giving players a chance to build fantastic themed homes with friends. Check out the Community Builds channel on our Discord to find a town that fits you!
